

Discover Stern Fall Diversity Weekend 2018

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Do I have to attend the activities on both days?

Attendees are required to attend all scheduled events. The program will begin on Friday morning, October 12 and end on Saturday afternoon, October 13. A detailed agenda will be sent to all attendees closer to the event.

2. Will Stern cover my travel, lodging, and other related expenses?

MBA Admissions will provide some meals, however, you are responsible for covering the cost of travel and accommodations associated with attending this event.

3. Where can I find more information about hotels for the weekend?

Please visit the NYU website to find a list of hotels within easy traveling distance of campus.

4. Will the information in my Discover Stern application have any influence on my Stern MBA application?

The information provided in the application will only be used in the selection process for Discover Stern Fall Diversity Weekend.

5. If I don't attend Discover Stern, can I still meet current students and alumni at other events?

You still have an opportunity to interact with current students and alumni at one of the many receptions we host throughout the fall. View a complete listing of our recruiting events on our website. You may also attend an on-campus information session and tour. Beginning in late September, you will be able to sign up for a class visit online (same page as 2nd link above).

6. I learned about Discover Stern after the application deadline. Can I still apply and be considered for the program?

Although preference is given to the applications that are received on or before the deadline, late applications will be considered on a space-available basis.
